Agents and brokers choose Localize because our technology allows them to do more than what is humanly possible.

We leverage artificial intelligence to identify qualified leads with serious intent to buy and place them back in your hands, without you having to lift a finger.

Referrals

Kobi Lahav

"Localize is a command and control center in the battlefield of real estate. We know that localize's importance for our team will continue to grow in the future as fewer agents claim a larger portion of the business through the use of tech and social media."

COMPASS

Kelly Rogers

"One of the huge benefits that I'm getting from working with Localize is that I'm receiving leads that have already been interacting with their AI tool, that's getting them very familiar with what they want."

Jules Borbely

"Before working with Localize, the number of deal we were missing out on was shocking. Hundreds of homebuyers who were rejected by our agents ended up buying a home with someone else."

Elegran

Kalav Mistry

"Localize's Hunter service is my best friend. The partnership and support Localize provides allows me to focus on my clients, advocate for them and serve their best interests."
